

Helper & Service Vocational Resource Guide

Curated by Bottom To The Top Enterprises

Welcome to Your Vocation

You have been selected as a Helper and Service Professional — someone whose work directly impacts lives, brings comfort, and keeps communities running strong.

At Bottom To The Top Enterprises, we believe in honoring these essential paths. Whether you're caring for others, supporting daily operations, or keeping environments clean and safe — your skill is your superpower.

Below are valuable resources to help you grow your career in healthcare support, hospitality, custodial work, transportation, culinary services, and more.

Top National Vocational Resources

1. Job Corps

Free career training program for young adults (ages 16–24) in areas like healthcare, hospitality, transportation, and maintenance. Offers housing, meals, and job placement.

🌐 Website: <https://www.jobcorps.gov>

2. Goodwill Career & Technical Academy

Offers short-term job training in customer service, CNA, hospitality, and trades. Many locations offer scholarships or free programs.

🌐 Website: <https://www.goodwill.org/job-training/>

3. CareerOneStop (U.S. Dept. of Labor)

Explore helper-level careers, find training programs, and get career advice from a trusted national source.

 Website: <https://www.careeronestop.org>

Local & Public Resources (Texas/Houston)

4. Houston Area Urban League – Workforce Development

Offers job training, resume support, and certification opportunities for Houston residents in service roles like CNA, CDL, and hospitality.

 Website: <https://www.haul.org>

5. SER Jobs – Houston

Helps individuals with training, job placement, and apprenticeships in healthcare, customer service, construction, and more.

 Website: <https://www.serhouston.org>